Dear old Look-out Mountain, look for me From your moun-tain height a Ev-'rywhere I've been I've heard them boast Of the trea-sures that they love, own, While you're watch-ing o-ver Ten-nes-see Wont you look out for the girl I Clear from Maine to that Pa-cif-ic coast All their won-drous beau-ties I've been love, shown, Tho' I left you both to roam a-round All my roam-ing days are, Ev-'ry state has trea-sures, I'll ad-mit, But I know a thing that's thru, You won't doubt When you find out I've been true to both of you: — true, They'd own up they were shown up If they looked at both of you: —
