March of the Ku Klux Klan

By PAUL LONGCREEK

We want to tell a We are a hand of sto - ry of the might - y Ku Klux Klan, A tale that's full of glo - ry and a nob - le - men that's bound by links of love, There's just one God we bow in - to and pa - tri - ot - ic plan. In robes of white we fight for right, it's ve - ry plain to that's our God a - above. Our cause is just in Him we trust, to lead us on thru see, With flag in hand, we take our stand, and march to Vic - to - ry.—

Life. We hope and pray we'll nev - er sway in this great land of strife.—

CHORUS

We're march-ing on, we're march-ing on, with firm-ness in our tread,— The Klansmen know the way to go, their course is straight a-head— We're for the right, we're for the right, yes each and ev-ery man— On - ward we go, firm step we show, March of the Ku Klux Klan. We're of the Ku Klux Klan.— of the Ku Klux

Klan.—
