and
CHAUNCEY OLCOTT.

Music by ERNEST R. BALL.

Andante espressivo.

The piano introduction is written in 6/8 time with a key signature of two flats (B-flat and E-flat). It begins with a mezzo-forte (mf) dynamic. The melody in the right hand features a series of eighth notes and quarter notes, while the left hand provides a steady accompaniment of quarter notes. The piece concludes with a rit (ritardando) marking and a double bar line.

There's a bit of an Isle where the green grass is green - est, Where I love all your riv - ers, your lakes and your moun - tains, I

The vocal line is written in a soprano clef with a key signature of two flats. The piano accompaniment continues from the introduction, marked p a tempo (piano, at tempo). The melody in the right hand is simple and accompanimental, while the left hand has a steady bass line.

ro - ses are sweet - est of an - y that grows; Where col - leens are fair - est and love all your sham - rocks, your bogs and your bays; I love your sweet dream - ing, I'm

The vocal line continues with the same melodic style. The piano accompaniment is marked p a tempo and features a similar accompanimental pattern to the first verse, with a steady bass line in the left hand.
