When Johnnie Comes Marching Home Again

by CHARLES B. WESTON

Tempo di Marcia

The piano introduction is in 6/8 time, marked f (forte). It features a rhythmic melody in the right hand and a supporting bass line in the left hand, both in a key signature of one flat (B-flat major). The piece concludes with a fermata over a final chord.

Our boys are of the fight-ing kind that win the vic - to - ry — and they'll bring back the laur - els from a
We'll close up ev - ry busi-ness and We'll have a hol - i - day — and ev - ry one will wear a smile with far a-cross the sea — They fight just like our fath - ers did in the days of six - ty one — they hearts so light and gay — We'll stand a-long the av - e-nue with our ban - ners wav - ing high — We'll

The first vocal line is in 6/8 time, marked p (piano). The melody is simple and rhythmic, with lyrics written below the notes. The piano accompaniment consists of chords in the right hand and a steady bass line in the left hand.

The second vocal line continues the melody from the first line. The piano accompaniment remains consistent, providing harmonic support for the vocal line.

keep right on a fight-ing till the vic - to - ry is won — And when the war is ov - er and the Shout and wave old glor - y while the boys go Marching bye — With bands so sweet-ly play-ing ev - ery

The third vocal line continues the melody. The piano accompaniment features some dynamic markings like mf (mezzo-forte) and f (forte) in the bass line.

boys comes home a - gain — We'll shout a-loud their prais - es and We'll sing the sweet re - frain — body's fa - vor - ite strain — We'll all join in the chor - us and We'll sing it o'er a - gain —

The fourth and final vocal line concludes the piece. The piano accompaniment ends with a final chord in the right hand and a sustained note in the left hand.
