1. I've got a pas-time, a pas-time, A pas-time that will pass your time a - way. This
2. I've been a-hik-ing, yes, hik-ing, Hik-ing is a sport the peo-ple like. For pas-time it must not be done in fast time, You take it eas - y night as well as day. Of hik - ing some peo-ple have a lik - ing, Next time I hike I'm going to take my bike. In course, this lit - tle game you'd like to know, Get read - y! One, two, three and off we go! - lit - tle knick-ers short we'd dressed you know, We sing, though round our knees the winds may blow: -

CHORUS 2nd time f

EXTRA COUPLETS.
 + The country's in an awful state, everything's so dear,
 Instead of paying publicans a penny more for beer,
 One morning in the House of Commons Ramsey Mac he cried,
 "It's five o'clock, what business next?" then Lloyd George he replied:-
