

Sung with Great Success by JACK WILSON.

#9256
91 3

YOU DON'T KNOW HOW MUCH YOU HAVE TO KNOW IN ORDER TO KNOW HOW LITTLE YOU KNOW

By

JAMES BROCKMAN, BERT FITZGIBBON
AND
LOUIS WESLYN

50¢
NET

M. Witmark & Sons.
New York Chicago London Paris

You Don't Know How Much You Have To Know, In Order To Know How Little You Know.

3

By JAMES BROCKMAN
BERT FITZGIBBON
& LOUIS WESLYN.

Moderato.

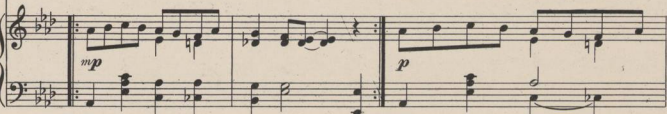

VOICE.

PIANO.

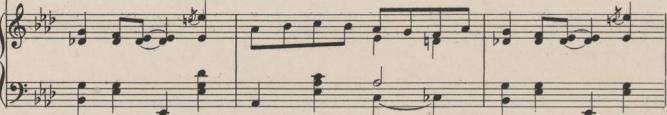

Till Ready.

When I was a boy, I thought I 'Bout a year a - go I thought I'd Once I took my la - dy to a knew it all,— And oft - en from my dad - dy got an aw - ful call,— I take a wife, I nev - er got so much ad - vice in all my life,— My swell ca - fe,— I could - n't read the bill of fare, its sad to say,— But used to think that I was real-ly won-drous wise, Won-drous wise_ yes, so friends all came and told me that I best go slow, Might-y slow,_ yes, just I just threw a bluff that it was plain to me,_ Plain to me_ from_ won - d'rous wise. In school I tho't my les - sons were an aw - ful bore, And aw - ful slow. I said: "I wish you'd go a - way and leave me be,_ There's A_ to Z_ So I said to the wai - ter "bring some pou - de - noo_ Some

I was pos - i - tive I knew it all and more;_ noth - ing that you peo - ple can ex - plain to me!" But cro-quettes Al - ca - zas - za and La - rin - za stew," My

But one day, when I had made the teach - er sore, — He aft - er I had mar - ried, I com - menced to see — A la - dy friend said, "I wish I could speak French too!" — I kept me aft - er school to my sur - prise. I'll re - hun - dred thou - sand things I did not know. And — said, "it's just as eas - y as can be!" I — mem - ber what he told me, till the day I die; When I when my wife had trip - lets 'twas the fi - nal touch, And — felt so much a - shamed, I near - ly lost my head, When the asked him what he want - ed he made this re - ply:

 I said to the doc - tor: "This is two too much."
 wai - ter brought us liv - er and some toast - ed bread.

CHORUS.

"You don't know how much you have to know, In— or - der to know_ how

mf - ff

lit - tle you know; Nev - er say or think, you know it all, Look and lis - ten, keep mum, lay low. The fool as a rule al - ways says, 'I told you so,' The wise just sur - mise, And you'll nev - er hear them blow, You don't know how much you have to know, In — or - der to know how lit - tle you know." 1. lit - tle you know." 2.

