new,
you,

Making our bur-dens light-er
Won-der-ful gold-en sun-set,

Work-ing for me and you,
E - ven the morn-ing dew,

They'll nev - er bring us won-ders like two lov - ing lips and arms, Moun-tains and hills and val-leys, the skies that are blue, a - bove

Love will go on for - ev - er they'll nev - er change na - ture's charms.
How can we be un - hap - py with beau-ti - ful things to love.

CHORUS

You can take the lights a-way from Broad-way But the stars a-bove re-main 'cause you can't take a-way the things that were made for love.

Ra-di-o may give us pret-ty mu-sic but the birds sing just the same 'cause you can't take a-way the things that were made for love I know that but - ter-flies and babling brooks the flowers and trees_ will live on in this world

_ when we're just mem-o - ries_ 'Till the end of time you'll find those lov-ers 'neath the moon in Lov-ers Lane 'cause you can't take a-way the things that were made for love._ love._
