I Faw Down An' Go Boom!

All the students treat me grand
They all formed— one big band
Then they taught me football and
I faw down an' go boom!
To perfect it, I did try
Practised it— on the sly
Suddenly the Dean walked by
I faw down an' go boom!
He tackled me I couldn't explain
I had— to tell
My story in my dormitory
Soon my Pa was notified
With a (letter) he replied
With no allowance check inside
I faw down an' go boom!

I played the market down the street
That's a game I thought I'd beat
I bought Amalgamated Heat
I faw down an' go boom!
I bought it up at eighty three
It went up to ninety three
I was happy as could be
I faw down an' go boom!
I went out and bought myself a Rolls Royce
O gee, O joy, while I was singing
The phone kept ringing
Then my broker said to me
That stock you bought at eighty three
Is lower than a deep blue sea
I faw down an' go boom!

I was learning how to dance,
How to dance, how to prance,
To kick high I took a chance
I faw down an' go boom!
Then I danced upon my toes
On my toes, goodness knows
When the floor struck my poor nose
I faw down an' go boom!
I tried and tried to hide all my pride
They laughed, an' laughed
I shook my shoulder and grew bolder
When I tried to do the split,
Do the split, make a hit,
Something started in to rip,
I faw down an' go boom!

Some kids say that the world to-day is all up-side down—
You go boom an' — I go boom an' we all faw down—

Some-times they're smil - ing, Some-times they frown.— My No use for cry - ing, No need to frown.— The heart felt sore for the kid next door, when I saw him cry — boy worth while is the boy who'll smile with tears in his eyes —

Here's what he told me, when I asked him why:—
 What's a mere boom to a fellow who's wise?—

CHORUS

"I played hors - ie down the street, with my broom, down the street,
 "I took sweet - ie out to dine, out to dine, she said "fine," when some - bod - y moved the street, I faw down an' go boom!

 when she ord - ered up some wine, I faw down an' go boom!

I got right up on my horse, Broom of course, was my horse, When some - bod - y
 Then I asked my pret - ty miss, Pret - ty miss, for a kiss, With a bang she moved my horse,

said, "take this",

I faw down an' go boom!
I faw down an' go boom!

I cried an' cried an'
I cried an' cried an'

ran home to Ma! —
said "I love you," —

It's all right now,
She laughed an' laughed

But how that cer-tain
An' said "no jok-in', place was hurt-in' Moth-er put me straight to bed, Straight to bed, oh! my head, you're pro-vok-in'" We got home to my sur-prise, My sur-prise, she told lies,

In my dreams they moved the bed I faw down an' go boom!" boom!"
Hub-by hit me 'tween the eyes I faw down an' go boom!" boom!"
