Andante Moderato

Words & Music by A. E. MAYES

Piano introduction in D major, 4/4 time. The right hand features a melodic line with grace notes, while the left hand provides a harmonic accompaniment with chords and moving bass lines.

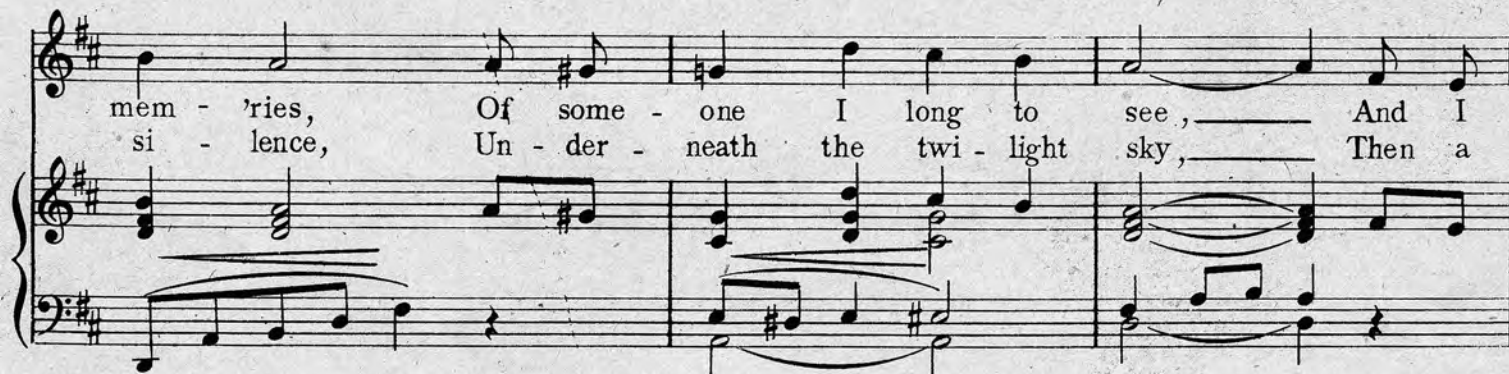

When the sum-mer day has end - ed And the twi - light shad - ows Whis - p'ring lil - ies there are mem - 'ries, Round your saint - ly fac - es creep, Round the lil - ies pure and ten - der, As they cling, Of a qui - et sum - mer eve - ning, When the bow their heads in sleep, — Then their fac - es pale bring birds had ceased to sing, — All the world was hushed in mem - 'ries, Of some - one I long to see, — And I si - lence, Un - der - neath the twi - light sky, — Then a won - der in the twi - light, If she some - times dreams of me. — smile, a tear, a mem - 'ry, Of the one who said good - bye. —

CHORUS

Whis - pring lil - ies, Whis - pring lil - ies, Raise your droop - ing heads and hear It's a ques - tion I would ask you, Of the one to me that's dear,

Whis - pring lil - ies you're no fair - er Than the one I long to see, Won't you tell me with your pure lips, If the one I love loves me?
