All the World's proud of England now

Words and Music by
EDDIE FOLEY

Marcia

The first system of the Marcia consists of a treble clef staff with four measures of whole rests. Below it is a grand staff (treble and bass clefs) with piano accompaniment. The piano part begins with a forte dynamic marking (f) and features a rhythmic pattern of eighth notes in the bass line and chords in the treble line.

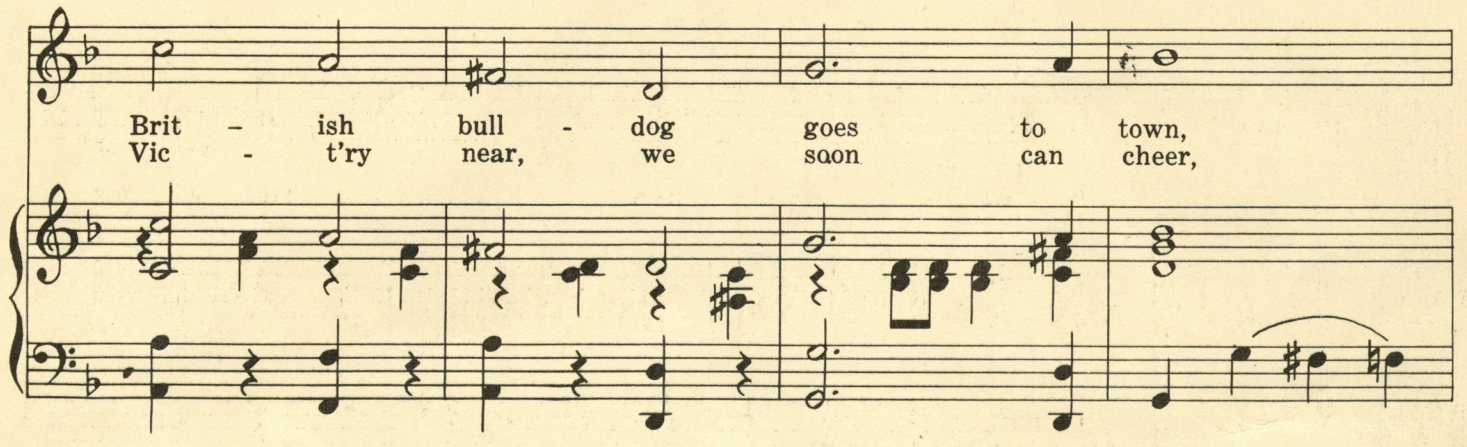

The second system continues the Marcia with a treble clef staff of four whole rests. The piano accompaniment continues with similar rhythmic patterns and harmonic support.

The third system introduces a vocal line. The lyrics are: "If Lon - don bridge is fall - ing down, So are the / In days gone by it was the cry, that, 'What we". The vocal line is written in a treble clef with a melodic line and a long slur over the final two phrases. The piano accompaniment continues below.

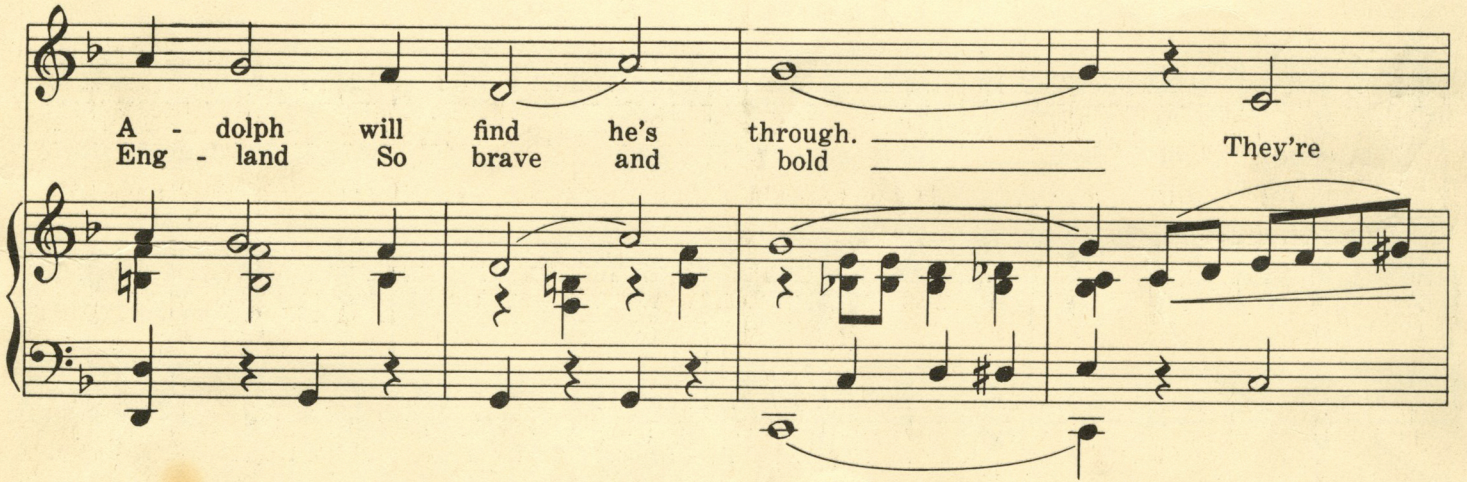

Hun have planes we too, hold," When the And with
