

Introduced by JEANETTE LOWRIE
"WIZARD - OF - OZ - Co., New York City.

There's a lot of things you never learn at school

BY { ED. GARDENIER
EDWIN S. BRILL

DOTY & BRILL
43 WEST 28TH STREET.
NEW YORK

There's a lot of things you never learn at school.

by { ED. GARDENIER.
EDWIN S. BRILL.

Allegretto.

Moderato.

1. I con - fess when I left col - lege with a bunch of high class knowledge, My
 2. Tom-my's teach - er told the sto - ry of George Wash - ing - tons young glo - ry, Who
 3. Al - though Doc - tors are pro - lif - ic with their knowledge sci - en - tif - ic, A
 4. Our new cot - tage they've been paint - ing and one night I felt like faint - ing, When I cran - i - um was not its nor - mal size, All the chopped the tree and cried: "Oh lie I cant", Tom vis - it to our house they sel - dom take, For gazed up - on my sun - day pearl - grey pants On those find no streets named af - ter me to - day, _____ I meet Georg - es "Pop" em - brace your truth - ful lad", _____ Cross his filled us with six dif - frent kinds of fright, _____ But Grand - way to take out paint stains with - out doubt, _____ Send a folks with - out much learn - ing in a way be - yond dis - cern - ing, They're knee Tom's pa - pa pressd him with a base - ball bat ca - ressed him, "Boys ma just took a bot - tle poured some black ink down it's throt - tle, It dime and learn the plan Sir well I did and got this an - swer, Just teach - ing me new wrink - les eve - ry day. _____

 Pops have changed since Georg - ies time" said Dad. _____
 reachd the pen and made the ba - by write. _____
 take a scis - sors cut the paint stains out. _____

high de-grees I'd won them all the tough-est prob-lems done them, I thought George was a dan-dy Next day an ax was hand-y, He dear-est old grand moth-er has a cure some how or oth-er, For trous-ers bright and mel-low spots of paint bright red and yel-low, It sim-ply thought the earth would be my prize; But I took it and chopped down the Rub-ber plant; Now who eve-ry kind of ail-ment pain or ache; Now our real-ly near-ly put me in a trance; Till I find my ed-u-ca-tion did-nt seem to jar the na-tion, I did this? yelled his dad-dy "It was I" re-plied the lad-die, "Like lit-tle ba-by hol-lered when a writ-ing pen it swal-lowed, It read in next day's pap-er a small "ad" that seem'd the ca-per, The Chorus.

There's a lot of things you nev - er learn at school, ——— There's a lot of things that nev - er go by rule, ——— There's an aw - ful lot of knowl - edge that you nev - er get at col - lege, There's a lot of things you nev - er learn at school. ———