PATTER. (After 3rd Verse.)

Yes, and if I've argued the point wi' my brither Jock once, I've argued it sixty thousand times. But Jock just says, "Early to bed, early to rise, makes a man healthy and wise." Of course that was all right fifty years ago, but it doesn't suit me. I told Jock this mornin'—I said, "Listen to me, now

"Early to bed, lie as long as ye can.

Eat ham and eggs and ye'll soon be a man!"

That's my plan. Of course Jock just laughed, and I just sang:
