PATTER. After Chorus, 2nd Verse

If I marry again - If! If ever a man has gone through the mill it's me - and a funny thing, my name is Millar - Rob Millar. Lots o' the fellows call me Bob. My mither used to call me Robert, and the wife - well, we'll let sleeping dogs lie. I wouldn't be a gentleman to talk a - bout a woman and she not here to defend herself; a thing she could always do and did do; still, I did my best for her during her last lap; I even sent for her sister to come and nurse her. I sat up two nights but gave it up - every time she needed a drink she had to waken me. She was quite up-to-date, when she went out I never knew where she was - in fact I don't know where she is, but I know this, and this is, that,
