Piano introduction in B-flat major, 2/4 time. The right hand features a rhythmic pattern of eighth and sixteenth notes, while the left hand provides a steady bass line with chords.

VOICE

1. I'm wild with glee,      Come go with me,
2. No one home at all,      They're at the ball,

Till Ready

The vocal line begins with a rest, followed by the melody for the first two lines of lyrics. The piano accompaniment continues with a similar rhythmic pattern to the introduction.

To that good old rag-time South-ern State,      Ev-'ry-bod-y's go - in' sure,
New-ly-wed and fam-i - ly were there.      Ad-mis-sion there was free,

The vocal line continues with the melody for the final two lines of lyrics. The piano accompaniment features a more complex rhythmic pattern, including a triplet in the right hand.

Ev - 'ry - bod - y's 'go in', E - ven Tom will be there with his sis - ter Kate.
So, Hon, now you can see Why they had to dance out in the o - pen air.

Dear old Al - a - bam - a, Next to Louis - i - an - a, Will I had one big time, dear, But just wait till next year, I'll show you how to have one grand old time, There are girls a - plen - ty, be the first one there out on the floor, I'll have one con so - la - tion,

All are un - der twen - ty, And none of them know where to draw the line. So I'll be at the sta - tion To take that train to Dix - ie just once more. So get your rags to-gether, Hon, let's go, I'll take you down to Dix-ie's one best show.

let me be your gal for one more year, And when its o - ver this is what I'll hear.

CHORUS

I'll take you down— to the Cot - ton Ball,— I'll take you down where we can see them all,— Tan-go trot-ting in their gowns of snow - y white, Hen-ry will be there with some-one else's wife, Where they'll shake their feet— and they'll "Ball the Jack," We may— get— there— and—nev - er get back,— If you love me, don't be late,

Safe - ty first then Hes - i - tate,— You'll be hap - py
