Con Spirito

On the Em-rald Isle you know Some hun-dred years a - go The Sure they fought a gal-lant fight They fought for Ire-land's right Their Ire-land's steed pulls for the top And Ire-land cries "Gid Up" For Eng-lish Kings and peers were ty - ran - iz - ing; Our brave mem-ries lin - ger still a - round the blar-ney; And their loy - al Ir - ish sons are in the sad - dle; Our dear sons of I - rish fame A - rose in Ire - lands name While fame shall not de - cay Their blood this ve - ry day It Ire-land must be free From Eng-land's ty - ran - y Tho' Ir - ish folk songs they were har - mon - iz - ing. And they min - gles with the wat - ers of Ril - lar - ney. Now the ev - 'ry Ir - ish chap shall go to bat - tle. Gee, when died up - on the green The ty - rant's swords were keen But hour a - gain has struck Hear the crow - ing of the cock, The Ire - land gets her rights And Eng - land quits her fights This an - gels watch the spot their blood was flow - ing; They top of free - dom's morn' is crown - ing Ire - land A - world will be a par a dise like E - den! Fair died but not in vain Their blood brought Eng - land shame, To - rise young Ir - ish lad Let's make auld Ire - land glad And Er - in let us pray That God will grant the day When day it keeps the Ir - ish Sham - rock grow - ing. drive the Brit - ish li - on out of Ire - land.

Eng - lands rule in Ire - land shall be beat - en.

CHORUS Tempo di Valse

All a - board for auld Ire - land and o - ver the sea Come Mur - phy, Ma - lo - ney, O - brien and Mc - Gee; We are head - ing for Dub - lin to set Ire - land free We love the auld Ire land's soil We're sons of dear Ire - land, we're gal - lant and brave We'll beat up the ty - rant and wal - lop the knave And Ire - land thy ban - ner a gain shall wave For e're on thy glo - ri - ous soil.
