AS ADVERTISED IN
 "THE SATURDAY EVENING POST"

WELL, if you'd like to know, just ask your dealer for "One Idea," and he'll put you wise. Young Jeremiah Wild had an idea about the girls that is interesting to all of them. Those three song wizards, Joe McCarthy, Earl Carroll and Al Piantodosi, have produced such an emphatic and unmistakable winner as has already been featured by Molly King in "The Belle of Bond Street," Ed. Morton, Emma Carus, Brice & King, Dorothy Meuther and other professionals who know the ear-marks of a "hit"—and this is certainly it. If this great ditty doesn't break the record, all guesses are off.

The text is such that the song can be sung by either sex by changing a single word.

CHORUS

AN ORDINARY honeymoon is one thing, but a honeymoon in Jungle-Land by a Monk and a Chimpanzee is different.

Arthur Fields and Walter Donovan felt the need of some really new, corking song for their professional work and they seized on the idea on which the "Aba Daba Honey-moon" is built. One night's collaboration and they had the novelty sensation of many a season. It was a big feature as sung by Ruth Royce, "The Princess of Ragtime," for the past three months at Palace Theatre, New York, and is now "going strong." If you want the newest and best novelty song in many moons, stop at your dealer's and get this "truly real" success.
