Now I've been known to gam-ble, Take a lit-tle drink. Then I knew a lot of wo-men When I was "on the go." They'd I'm gon-na do some brag-gin' Up and down the town. I'm there's the night I had a fight and end-ed in the clink. But stand in line to drink my wine and help me spend my dough. But walk-in' in to joints I knew and pass the news a-round. That day he'll look at me and say, "Hey how you doin' down there?" He'll now my hoot-in' days are done, — Got-ta my wife Ro-sie ain't that kind, — Got me and Ro-sie got a son. — Tho' he's be good-heart-ed like his ma. — But I'll be the man he thinks I am 'cause I love my son! her to thank for some cash in the bank, and this kid of mine!

 just been born, gon-na buy him a horn, a foot-ball and drum.
 bet he'll be a la-dy kill-er just like his pa
