Moderato.

Piano. ff

Till Ready.

I was born in Dix-ie-land_ not so ve-ry long a - Ma - ny lone - some days I've spent since I left my Dix - ie - go, — And when my Pa and Ma moved a - way up North_ I cert - in - ly ha - ted to home, — Im nev - er sat - is - fied where I chance to be — It seems I do noth - ing but go — It seems I've been a - way_ for a long, long time_ from the Ma - son Dix - on room_ Some day Im go - ing back_ to that lit - tle shack_ where the red, red Ros - es line. — Those north - ern folks are might - y good to me_ but I'll take Dix - ie for mine. — grow. — It is n't much but still its dear to me_ and I'll be wel - come I know. —

Chorus.

I live up North but I've still got the South in me — as you can see. — And all a-round my heart there's a sneak-y feel-in' For my home in Ten-nes-see — And ev-'ry time I hear a Ban-ty roos-ter crow-in' I feel like go-in' where the cot-tons grow-in' Down there where the birds are sing-ing And the wed-ding bells are al-ways ring-ing, Im might-y lone-some for that Swan-ee Riv-er And I feel like pick-in' on a nice spring chicken cooked in South-ern style — Im just as lone-some as can be — And full of hos-pa-tal-ity I live up North but I've still got the South in me. — me.

The musical score is written for voice and piano. It features a key signature of two flats (B-flat and E-flat) and a common time signature (C). The piano accompaniment includes various musical notations such as triplets, slurs, and dynamic markings. The lyrics are written below the vocal line, with some words hyphenated across lines. The score concludes with two first endings, marked with '1' and '2'.

“Here’s To Your Boy” And “My Boy”

Words and Music by GEORGE FAIRMAN

Chorus.

Here's to your boy and my boy, And they're sweet-hearts so true. — May good luck be with them, in all that they say and do, — Here's to they're dear sweet mo - thers who pray all the time. — Here's to
