Plaintive.

O'er the gloomy woods re-sounding far far from the joyless vale deep the heavy death bell sounding Tolls a luckless Maidens knell. O near-er on the low wind floating sweetly flows the tuneful strain Pity's choir the dirge de-- -voting To the Shade of CRAZY JANE.

In the Grove where Erst her ditty,
Wild and loud the mourner rais'd,
While the virgins mov'd with pity,
wept to find poor Jane was Craz'd.
In that grove in plaintive numbers,
Slowly falls the solemn strain,
Where the hapless Maiden slumbers,
Where in Peace rests CRAZY JANE.

In that Grove where Henry left her,
Bleeding with Love's cruel smart,
When despair of sense bereft her,
When affliction broke her heart.
In that Grove forbear to languish,
Gentle virgins cease the strain,
Death has lull'd from grief and anguish,
Love's sad Victim CRAZY JANE.

The musical score is written on ten staves. It begins with a treble clef and a key signature of one flat (B-flat). The notation includes various note values, rests, and bar lines, though the specific notes are difficult to discern due to the fading of the ink. The piece appears to be a solo setting, as indicated by the title.
