ANY ICE?

Words and Music by BERT POTTER.

VOICE.

Not too fast.

PIANO.

VOICE.

Till Ready.

1. You have heard of the man who shouts
2. If you live in a flat at the

"An- y old Rags," Of the man who wants scissors to grind, Or the top of the house And there's nine or ten flights he must climb Then you man who goes round, "Um - brel-las to mend," And you've heard of the "Man be - shout from on high, You must have ice or die, Then he says he'll come up next hind" When the weather is hot, You have use for them not And you time When you pon-der and think You have noth-ing to drink And your wish they were out of your way; But the wel - come cry, when the ice has all melt-ed a - way The fa - mil - iar sound, for the Ice Man's nigh, If you lis - ten you'll hear him say — Ice Man's round, And you wait till you hear him say —

CHORUS.

An - - y Ice? an - - y ice? Will you have an - y ice to day?

An - y Ice? an - - y ice? If he happens to pass your way, Put your ice card out he will sure - ly shout For he hasnt got long to stay, Whoa!

an - y ice? an - y ice? Will you have an - y ice to day? day?
