

M9355
1387

SONG OF THE TRUCKER
from the motion picture . . . "SINGING WHEELS"

SINGING WHEELS

Fast Waltz tempo

1. Re-
" Once

mem-ber the days of the Pony ex-press Re- member the days of yore Oh, the " " " speed " " first Iron horse. In those good old " " " " she was pa-tient-an old fash-ioned miss. She'd wait for the lover who roamed. Remember dear shaving mug and the crinolin dress and the old fashioned country store — Re-o-verland transcon-ti nen tal course, ride a week or two or more The the days when she'd wait for a kiss? Or — wait for the cows to come home For the mem-ber the little red school-house days the "Apple, the Crayon the Slate? — Re-old-cov-ered wagon was some mov-ing van — "Oh—, Su-zanna was great — " barn that was rob-bed she ordered a latch. It mat-tered not if it came late. Now, member the time of the gas-buggy days Shucks I'd better re - member my Freight ! Re" " bor-ax team twenty mule span " " " " " " " " " " " " the chick-en won't wait for her eggs to hatch" and no one will wait for the freight. "

CHORUS (ROBUSTLY)

Oh
 Roll 'em Trucker! Keep Rollin' along

Roll 'em Trucker To a Rol - lin Song

Milk for the Babies, Silk for the Ladies

Fuel for the furnace, Wool for the Mill

Beans and po-tatoes Corn and to-matoes

Roll 'em Trucker! Keep Rollin! along.

Music by—Edwin Ludig

Lyrics by—Maurice Stoller

Copyright by Automobile Manufacturers Association