3. Oh
4. It's here we come in filth and rags, We snooz - ers sneak with tramp and bags, We're ev' - ry one in coun - ty jail, Must stand in line with cof - fee pail, Then my, oh my, when we're a - float, A - sail - ing on the Bel - vue boat, We there you'll find the tough - est gangs, Sweet La - dies too, with curls and bangs, They bound a - way for Blackwell's Isle, The sum - mer months to rest a - while. all sit down in Roy - al style, To eat their hash on Blackwell's Isle. chant and sing in hap - py style, All pals that's bound for Blackwell's Isle. march a - long, in In - di - an file, And keep lock step on Blackwell's Isle.

There's high - way men and ten day bums, All drag'd from al - leys dark With picks and shov - els then off we go, To dig in quar - ries what It's fare - well Mol - ly and red - hair'd Mag, With Cork leg'd Dol - ly the Our Pri - son cells are cold and bleak, Their i - ron doors they courts and slums, From boose - ing kens and crook - ed drums, To slave - ry, oh, Take our ad - vise, both friend and foe, Keep squint - eyed hag They all hung out at the old Burnt Rag, And creek and shriek, Now if mis - for - - tune, boys you'd seek, Come
