VAMP

While the sil - v'ry moon is shin - ing, In the dear old South - ern Eve - ning comes I dream of you dear, And the dear old days gone sky. _____ And all nature seems at rest, the birds have ceased their song, 'Tis by. _____ How in hap - py child - hood days through cot - ton fields we'd roam, And lov - in' time when you are nigh. lis - ten to the night winds sigh.

Nev - er was a rose more sweet dear, How I love you no one Boo - gie man would hang a - round dear, While the hon - ey moon hung knows. Come to me my hon - ey gal I'm low. Then I'd take you in my arms and wait - in' here for you, Won't you come to me my Dix - ie Rose. hug you close to me, And I'd sing be - cause I love you so.

CHORUS
Slowly

You are my Dix - ie Rose, The fair - est

p-f flow - er that grows Say you'll be mine in June. And 'neath the big hon - ey moon. We'll wan - der arm in arm, ————— Con - tent in love's sweet - est charm ————— Then we can

ten. cud - dle up and spoon, ten. While I croon love's old sweet tune, ten. To my

rit. pret - ty lit - tle Dix - ie Rose, You are my Rose. ————— rit. D. S.
