

DON'T WRITE ME LETTERS

(But come right back to me) Eivie Herman

WORDS BY JOE YOUNG
MUSIC BY BERT GRANT

WATERSON BERLIN
&
SNYDER CO.
Music Publishers
Strand Theatre Bldg
Broadway at 47th St
NEW YORK

AL BARBELLE

Don't Write Me Letters

(But Come Right Back To Me)

Lyric by JOE YOUNG.

Music by BERT GRANT.

Moderato.

Voice

I got a let-ter from my sweetie to - day; It starts and finishes the Save all the pennies that you're spending on mail, Instead of letters send your-

Till ready same old way. "Hon-ey how de do? I've been true_ to you, Tho' I'm far_ far a - self by rail; Why neg - lect me dear, I ex - pect_ you here; Hur - ry back_ with-out way."_ I get a let-ter ev-'ry - day in the week; But I'm so lonesome just to fail. _ I'm sick of read-ing, it's the same ev-'ry day; You say you're lonesome, when you're hear sweetie speak. Ev'ry note_ I get with my tears I wet, That's the reason why I say.

far, far a - way. For a month or two you've been feel - ing blue; For the last time I must say.

Chorus.

Not too fast

"Don't write me let - ters, But come right back to me, ———— What good are let - ters,

I want your com-pan-y. ———— In ev-'ry let-ter I find — A mil-lion kis-ses un-der-lined; — But they're not the kind of kisses, Sweet and loving kisses, I have in mind. Tho' ev-'ry let - ter

Is full of love for me; ———— I feel much bet - ter, If your smile I could see. ————

— So now, in - stead of lov - ing me with pa - per, pen and ink, — I wish you'd tell me to my face just what you think. Don't write me let - ters, But come right back to me? Don't write me me? ————