This is a vintage sheet music cover for the song "Vienna, City of My Dreams" (also known as "Wien, du Stadt meiner Traume"). The title is prominently displayed at the top in large, bold letters. Below the title, the subtitle "(Wein, du Stadt meiner Träume)" is written in parentheses. The central feature is a black and white portrait of the singer, Richard Crooks, looking slightly upwards. The cover is framed by a decorative border of stylized flowers and leaves. At the bottom left, the credits list the English words by Edward Lockton and the music by Rudolf Sieczyński. The publisher, Ascherberg, Hopwood & Crew Ltd., is listed at the bottom right along with their London address. There is also a reference to their Australian and New Zealand distributor, Chappell & Co. Ltd. The bottom of the cover features a silhouette of a city skyline, likely Vienna. A small pink circle with the number "746" is located in the bottom right corner. Handwritten markings "Haigh SIE" and "55." are visible in the upper right corner of the title area.

The musical score consists of two staves. The top staff is for the VOICE, starting with a rest. The bottom staff is for the PIANO, indicated by a brace and a dynamic marking of mf. The vocal part begins with the lyrics "Herz und mein Sinn schwärmt stets nur fur Wien, fur Wien wie es wient, wie es lacht, da heart sees her yet, my heart can't forget, Vi-en-na, dear ci-ty of dreams." The piano part provides harmonic support with chords. The vocal line continues with "kenn ich mich aus, da bin ich holtz'Haus bei Tag und nochmehr bei der Nacht, und vi-sions of night, I see ev-ry light, Each casement of fai-ry-land gleams." The score is in 2/4 time.
