ARTHUR JOHNSTON

"Through these portals pass the most beautiful girls in the world!"

That is the famous Earl Carroll slogan which makes his magic stage door entrance the envy of every pretty girl who wishes to seek fame and fortune by means of the graces with which nature has endowed her. Carroll, who went to Hollywood with a bevy of his most beautifuls to aid in the production of Paramount's "Murder at the Vanities", has many unique ideas about beauty.

He selects his girls on the basis of their faces, figures and youth. This sequence is adhered to because young women who possess these necessary ingredients can be taught to dance, to be graceful and to sing. He considers the women of this country more beautiful than all others because American blood is an intermingling of so many nationalities. But he denies that make-up can be used skillfully enough to create the illusion of beauty where it does not really exist.

When "Murder at the Vanities" is released, Earl Carroll's show girls will surround an outstanding cast of principals including Carl Brisson, Victor McLaglen, Jack Oakie and Kitty Carlisle. Brisson, noted as a singer and actor on the London stage, was brought to America especially for this picture. The hard boiled Victor McLaglen and the genial Jack Oakie need no introduction. Kitty Carlisle, star of the Broadway production "Champagne Sec", also makes her debut in "Murder at the Vanities."

ARTHUR JOHNSTON and SAM COSLOW, who will be remembered for such successful song hits as "Moon Song", "Thanks", "The Day You Came Along", "Learn To Croon", "Just One More Chance" and many others, all of which have been written for PARAMOUNT PICTURES, now give us their newest musical score for "MURDER AT THE VANITIES". The titles are as follows:

"COCKTAILS FOR TWO" "LIVE AND LOVE TONIGHT"
 "MARAHUANA" "EBONY RHAPSODY" "LOVELY ONE"

VICTOR McLAGLEN

KITTY CARLISLE

if it's a PARAMOUNT PICTURE it's the best show in town!
