One day in Mexico I met a rich Ranchero,
 Surprised to see the bullet holes in my sombrero,
 He said: "Señor, for heaven's sake, look at your hat,
 If you were married, you would never look like that!"
 He had the prettiest Señorita for a daughter,
 I used to see her when I took my horse to water,
 So then I knew just why he wanted me to stay,
 But to his sorrow I couldn't help to smile and say:

"Maybe someday,
 You will hear me say:
 "Honor and Obey,
 For better or for worse, I do!"
 Me for you, . . .
 Tea for two;
 But while I'm free
 There will be no tea!
 I shall see to that!
 Mysterious Caballero,
 You don't need another hat!

*En noches claras y al brillar de sus huaparras,
 Se oye la dulce entonacion de sus guitarras;
 Cada guitarra da sus notas al amor,
 Cada huaparra un bofeton para el traidor! . . . .
 A los valientes deja honores "MI PANDILLA"
 Y a los cobardes agujeros de izquierdilla;
 Con MI PANDILLA no hace ronda Lucifer
 Por que sus almas no se prestan a alquiler.*

*Si a gallos van . . . .
 Ellos cantaran,
 Son y lo seran
 Estacas en corral de ley,
 "No aguamiel
 de maguey"
 Si a amores van . . . .
 No los hallaran,
 Solo escucharan
 El eco de los besos
 Que otros labios buscaran.*
