Oh what a shame they gave you the name of Mick - ey. Where is the prettiest grown - up girl You had a friend that used to be fond and true. He was a dog, a mutt of a dog, it's you - back - y the bark and the howl you meet, back - y the mew and the si - - - - - true. He used to fol - low you ev - - - - - When that more true by your side lit - tle feet there in the moon - ing dew.
He was a luck - y old dog to be there, And he to be loved it true.
How can you blame me when I love, But in to change your love to mist
This is a prom - - - - -
I'll be as faith - ful to you as love

SWEET DADDY

By EDWARD PATRICK

My lit - tle sweet - - - - -
He said I was some - - - - -
He's gone and left me high and dry, It's fun - - - - -
The sweet - - - - - thought had lost, But I guess he met a girl - - - - - cute and smart, Now I guess there is some - - - - - Now that he's gone what can I do, How much I loved him to see - - - - -
I would not give him just the same, He lit - tle now if this love - - - - -
