

Brid

VOCAL SELECTIONS FROM

The Maid of Plymouth

Comic Opera in 2 Acts

Words by

Clay M. Greene

Music by

T. Pearsall Thorne

Performed by

THE BOSTONIANS

Pr. 50 cts.

NEW YORK

Published by T. B. HARMS & CO. 18 East 22 St.

Why don't you Speak for yourself John?

PRISCILLA.

Words by CLAY M. GREENE.

Music by T. PEARSALL THORNE.

Voice. Andantino.

Why don't you speak for your - self, John?

Piano. mf rall. p

O-pen your heart to me, Why is it sealed? Why un - re-vealed?

mf

Se-crets that should not be! Why let them lie like a p mf piu moto.

weight, John, Deep in your lone - ly heart? Why not be bold?

Let them be told, Sure ly the truth were best. For there's a wealth in the rall. a tempo.

p rall.

truth John! Wide as the vale of years. O pen your eyes,

Truth nev - er dies, Truth can dry floods of tears.

rit.

piu moto.

Why don't you speak for your - self, John? What are his dreams to me!

Tides ebb and flow, Loves come and go, That love can nev - er be. Ah!

a tempo.

But there's a place for a love, John, Here in this heart so true! Love never cold,

Pu-rer than gold, Love, John, that's all for you!