He Called It An Auty-mo-bile.

By AUGUSTA COLLINS.

Allegro

Moderato

To - day John, I saw such a fun - ny thing A - set - tin' in front of the An - oth - er thing that seemed cu - rious to me. By jing! was the pow - er - ful

Farm - ers Bank, A life - pre - serv - er on ev' - ry wheel As smell it had, He said it was noth - ing but gas - o - line, I sure as my name is Hi - ram Hank. A fel - ler on the seat in a knew it was sure - ly some thing bad' And ov - er each wheel was a - div-er's suit, His hands hold-in' on - to a wheel; A big fog horn in the great big wing, A smoke stack put un - der the keel; And up in front was a leg of his boot And he called it an au - ty - mo - bile.

big win - dow glass And he called it an au - ty - mo - bile.

CHORUS

Yes sir, he called it an au - ty - mo - bile, But I know he was fool - in' me; I've read 'bout them sub - ma - rines, by heck! And they go to the bot-tom of the pesk-y sea. He thought that I was green and gave me a spiel, And saw how ner-vous he would make me feel, But you can bet yer life he could not fool me

So he up and called it an au-ty - mo - bile. 1 2 bile.
