OH! CHANTECLER.

(A Married Man's Lament.)

Written and Composed by FRANK WOOD.

Con spirito.

PIANO.

The musical score is written for piano and consists of three systems of music. Each system has a grand staff with a treble clef on the upper staff and a bass clef on the lower staff. The key signature is two sharps (F# and C#), and the time signature is 6/8. The first system begins with a dynamic marking of f (forte) and includes the instruction 'Con spirito.' above the staff. The melody in the treble clef starts with a quarter note G4, followed by eighth notes A4 and B4, and then a dotted quarter note C5. The bass line consists of a steady eighth-note accompaniment. The second system continues the melody with eighth-note runs and a dotted quarter note. The third system concludes the piece with a final melodic phrase in the treble clef, including a slur over the last two notes and a fermata over the final note, and a corresponding bass line accompaniment.

2.

Last night I slept upon the floor, for when I sought my bed
 She'd cut it all about,
 And took the feathers out.
 I asked her what she'd done with them;
 She answered with a grin,
 "I've shaved the fur from off the cat,
 And stuck the feathers in."

Chorus— Oh! Chantecler, &c.

3.

She's put the dog inside a cage, and feeds it ev'ry day
 On giblets, you must know,
 To try and make it crow.
 When I got home this afternoon,
 Our darling baby Jack
 Was dressed up like a duck, and she
 Was teaching him to quack.

Chorus— Oh! Chantecler, &c.
