THE SONG OF MISTER PHONOGRAPH.

WORDS and MUSIC by H. A. H. von OGRAFF.

allegretto

The piano introduction consists of two staves. The right hand starts with a treble clef and a key signature of two sharps (F# and C#). The left hand starts with a bass clef and the same key signature. The tempo is marked 'allegretto' and the dynamics are marked 'mf'. The music features a rhythmic pattern of eighth and sixteenth notes, with some triplet markings.

With humor

1: My name is Mister Phono-graph and I'm not so ve ry old; My Father he's called E....di-
 2: In the fruit of mo..dern sci..en..ces, (the bud was hard to raise); But sprouts and num'rous Pho..no-

The first system shows the vocal line and piano accompaniment. The vocal line is on a treble clef staff with a key signature of two sharps. The piano accompaniment is on a grand staff (treble and bass clefs). The piano part features a steady eighth-note accompaniment in the right hand and a more active bass line. The lyrics are written below the vocal staff.

son and I'm worth my weight in gold. The folks they just yell in-to my mouth and now I'm grafts are ac...cepted with good...ly praise. Now silence no longer is gol.....den and words like

The second system continues the vocal and piano accompaniment. The vocal line and piano accompaniment are on the same staves as the first system. The lyrics continue below the vocal staff.

say...ing whats true: For just speak to me I'll speak it back and you'll see I can Truth shall not fail and I sing to you, as I make my bow, for E...di...son's

The third system concludes the vocal and piano accompaniment. The vocal line and piano accompaniment are on the same staves. The lyrics conclude below the vocal staff.
