And nev - er more would you want

You've heard of blues that would make you want to roam

The piano accompaniment for the second vocal line continues in 4/4 time, featuring a series of chords and melodic lines in both hands.

to come back home

I'm not de-ny-in',

I'm ev - en cry-in',

The piano accompaniment for the third vocal line continues in 4/4 time, featuring a series of chords and melodic lines in both hands.

The blues have got me so bad I'm near - ly dy - in', I'm grievin' and

The piano accompaniment for the fourth vocal line continues in 4/4 time, featuring a series of chords and melodic lines in both hands.

Oh mail man come my way

heav-in'sighs and pray-in'ev-ry day

For here's a new kind of blues,

The kind that I cant ex - cuse,

They're all about the big pay

Pro - vid - in' that it aint lost a - long the way

I'll get some day

I've borrowed from my dad, —

And all my sweet-ie had, — Its "dough" I'm

But when I get my Bon-us I wont feel so sad need - in', And I am need-in' bad

CHORUS

Yes I've got those Bon-us Blues, Most all the time

p-f R.H. L.H.

Blu - est blues I've ev - er had

And they're all mine When I lay me down to sleep I pray the Lord to keep that pay come-in'

Oh! wont you kind ly hear my plea on its way to me When I start to sing or hum Those blues get me Bet - ter
