Andante moderato.

1. Men have won a na-tion's praise,
2. In a dis-mal, cheer-less room,
3. To the night-y riv-er's brink,
Some times they de-serve it, They have loved their coun-try well,
Sits a care-worn wo-man, Long-ing for a kind-ly word,
Come the poor-er class-es, Just to get a breath of air,
