The image shows a handwritten musical score for a part song. At the top left, there are handwritten markings: 'MUS N', 'N copy', 'MBA', and '182.525'. Below these, the title 'R514' is written. The music is arranged for two voices (Soprano and Alto) and a basso continuo (B.C.). The vocal parts are in treble clef, and the continuo part is in bass clef. The vocal parts have lyrics, while the continuo part provides harmonic support with basso continuo figures. The score consists of three systems of music. The first system contains two staves for the voices and one for the continuo. The second system begins with a 'CHORUS' section, indicated by a large 'f' dynamic. The third system concludes with a repeat sign and the instruction 'D.C.' (Da Capo). The lyrics are as follows:
