

© Cl E 455164

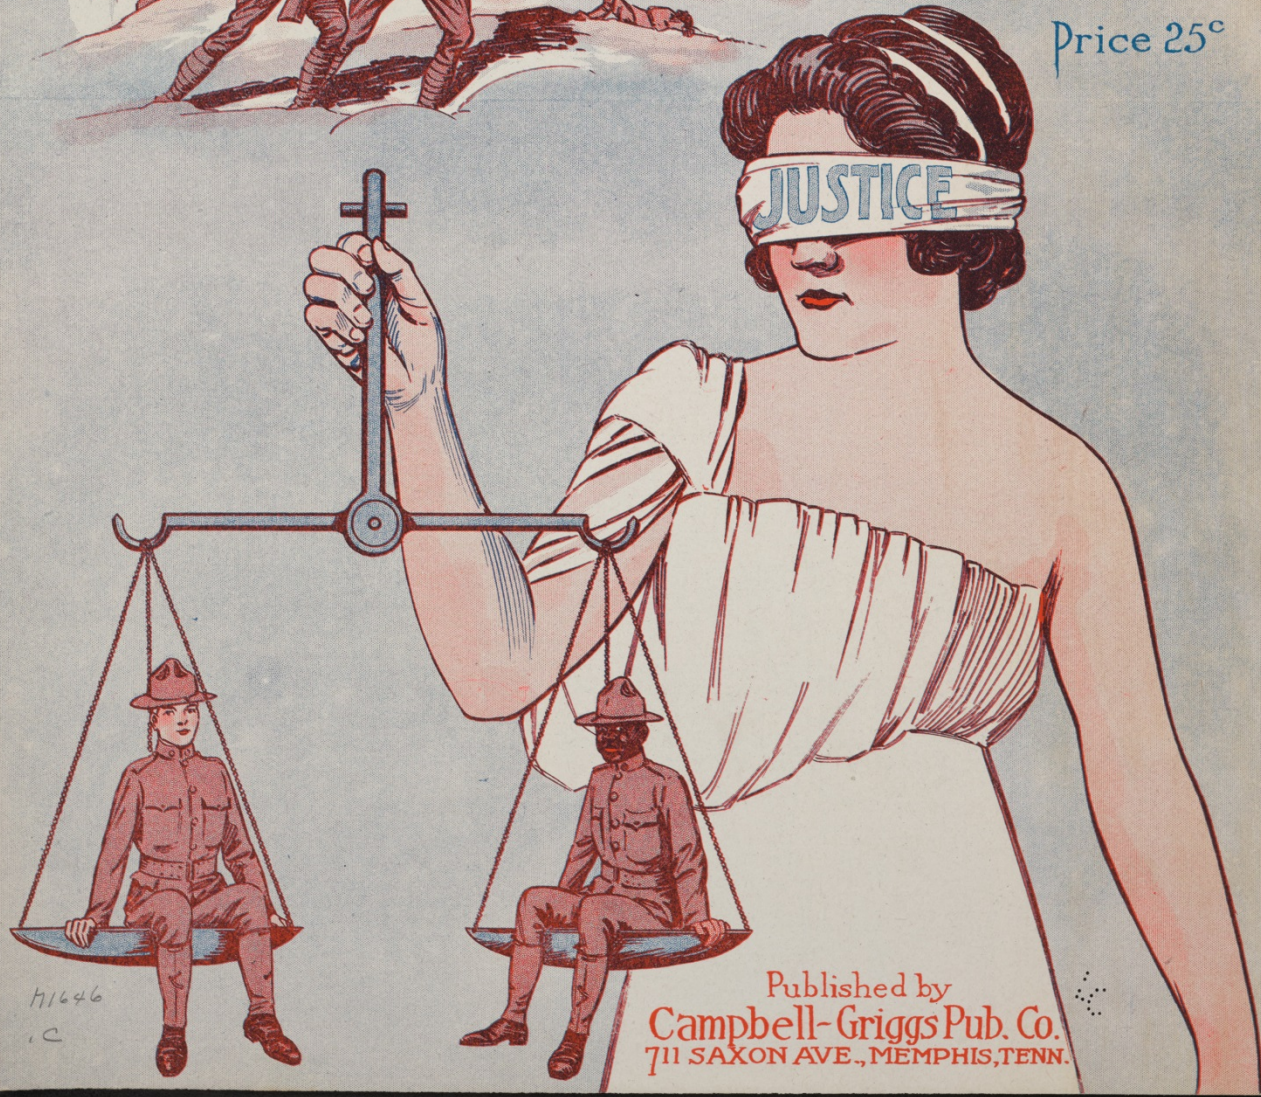

JUL 19 1919

ARE THEY EQUAL IN THE EYES OF THE LAW?

Words by Sergt. Allen R. Griggs, Jr.
Music by
Miss L. E. Campbell COMPOSERS OF
"Please Let Your Light Shine on Me"

Price 25^c

41646
i.c.

Published by Campbell-Griggs Pub. Co.
711 SAXON AVE., MEMPHIS, TENN.

Are They Equal In The Eyes of the Law?

Words by
A. R. GRIGGS
Composers of Please Let Your Light Shine On Me

Music by
L. E. CAMPBELL

Introduction

1. As they sit in con-sul - ta-tion, Seek-ing peace for the wide,wide world, I
 2. Ah,my soul is all e - mo-tion, Fired by thoughts of low - ly lot, I
 3. God,the Fa-ther of cre - a - tion, Hear, oh, hear my hum-ble plea, As with won-der if their thoughts e'er turn to me. I was at the con-cenwon-der if 'twill ev - er be the same? I was there with true decon-trite heart I call thy ho - ly name. In this land of des-o-tra-tion, Of the troops that stopt the whirl Of the Kai-ser in his dash to-ward the sea.

 vo-tion,With a rec-ord not one blot And I caused my coun-try not one bit of shame.
 la-tion,Where they lynch and tor-ture me, Keep them, Fa-ther, from this life of sin and shame.

As I sit in med-i - ta-tion, Seek-ing so-lace from on high,
 Would it cause a great com-mo-tion, If a com-rade spoke for me?
 Oh thou God of res-ti - tu-tion, Thou with ven-geance in Thy hand, We pray Thee, won-der if they see I stand in awe, As they plan the fed-er - a-tion, For the Oh, I would that I could help to draw For I'd have no oth-er no-tion, Just this Keep us from grim hatred's mighty claw Show them, Lord, that re-tri - bu-tion, Runs its rac-es far and nigh, Are they } e-equal in the eyes of the law?

Copyright, MCMXIX, by Campbell-Griggs Pub. Co., Memphis, Tenn.

 one long night-ly plea, Are they } course throughout the land, To make men }

CHORUS
 Are they e-equal in the eyes of the law? The black man faced his death and cried "Hurrah?" His soul was pure and white, He fought a man-ly fight, No more pa-tri-ot-ic sons you nev-er saw Are they e-equal in the eyes of the law?

The black man faced his death and cried "Hur-rah"; } They were the same in no man's } They were the same to the God of land, Tell me now, how do they stand? } Are they e-equal in the eyes of the law?

 hosts, Tell me in your Free-dom's boasts }

Are they 2

Raynt Dalheim & Co., Chicago

TRY THIS ON YOUR PIANO

Please Let Your Light Shine On Me

Words by
Sergeant A. R. GRIGGS
Composers of Are They Equal in the Eyes of the Law?
Introduction

Music by
LUCIE E. CAMPBELL

1. I am back a - gain from the field of France, I have fought with
2. The deeds of John - son and Rob - erts brave, Are writ - ten in
3. We gave re - lief to the Bel - gian hosts, Healed the wounds of might and main, To up - hold the flag, that grand old let - ters of gold, All - played the whole game, and died just the bleed - ing France, We - bat - tled the Huns, Kept him on the rag And the fight has not been in vain, Now all that I same, As the fair - est with - in the fold; Yet all that I run, And saw that he didn't get a chance, Now all that I ask of your ma - jes - ty as re - ward for mak - ing men free Is a seek from your might - y throne, Is a glimpse of the torch of the free, I was crave for - du - ty done, Is that foes will let me be, Then chance in - life A square deal in - strife, So please let your light shine on me.

loy - al and true, While fight - ing for you, So please let your light shine on me.
up - ward I'll fly, On that lit - tle word Try, And see that your light shine on me.

Copyright, MCMXIX, by Campbell-Griggs Pub. Co., Memphis, Tenn.

466282