Gay Little Will O' The Wisp

(My Own Little True Light O'Love.)

Gay little will o' the wisp,
I've followed you near and far;
You've winked and you've twinked and you've beckoned me on,
Like the will o' the wisp that you are!
Then just when I'd think I had caught you at last,
I'd find you were not there at all;
You'd vanish before you were quite within grasp,
And my pride would get a great fall.

At last, little will o' the wisp,
I know where your hiding place lies;
My diligent seeking has not been in vain,
I've found you in somebody's eyes.
And never again shall I let you escape,
I swear it by stars up above;
Forever I'll hold you, sweet pris'ner of fate,
My own little true light o'love.

THO' you have said "forget me";
 Tho' you have said "goodbye";
 You taught me love's deep meaning;
 And love can never die.
 Still in my dreams it always seems
 We'll meet when clouds roll by.

I'll forget you when I can live without the sunshine,
 I'll forget you when I can live without the rain,
 When summer roses forget their fragrance
 And the song bird his sweet refrain.
 I'll forget you when all the silver of the moonlight,
 Fades forever and ne'er will bring love's dream
 again;
 When heaven's gladness has turned to sadness,—
 I'll try to forget you in vain.

From all the world I chose you,
 Heart of my heart to be;
 Now you have left me sighing,
 Tossing on love's great sea.
 I pray love's star that gleams afar
 May guide you back to me.
