

Has Anybody Seen My Kitty?

(Come Pussy! Pussy! Pussy!)

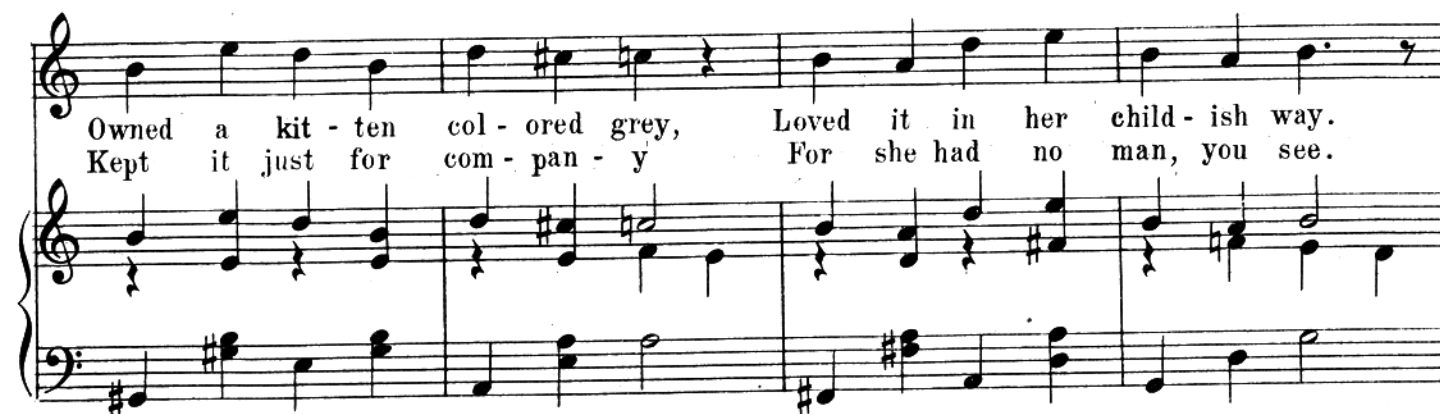

Words & Music by
H. PRES PORTER

Lit - tle Su - sie An - na Brown, Pride and pet of all the town,
Old maid Thompson lived next door, Had a Tom cat long and poor;

Owned a kit - ten col - ored grey, Loved it in her child - ish way.
Kept it just for com - pan - y For she had no man, you see.

When she went to sleep at night, Cud - dled kit - ty tight;
Came a time when Tom lit out To roam the coun - try side,

But one morn the cat was gone And Su-sie cried with fright:
 Our old maid looked for a day, Then to the folks she cried: Has an-y-bod-y seen my kit - ty? Has an-y-bod-y seen my cat? { 1 She's the 2 He is cut-est thing, And her name is Jean-I wonder where she's at } I sit all night and long and brown, And his name is Tom-I wonder where he's at } sigh, 'Cause it's lone-ly in my flat, Come Pus-sy, Pus-sy, Pus-sy,

CHORUS

Nice Pus - sy, Pus-sy, Pus-sy; An - y-bod-y seen my cat ? Has cat? Won't you

1 3 2 To Patter Chorus

3 Fine

PATTER CHORUS

please help me find my lonesome cat, I — know she's dog-gone lonesome No mat-ter where she's at, I've moth-ered her since she was born; Fed her cream and chicken ev-'ry morn. She must of lost her way last night,

I bet she's hungry and looks a fright So please, please help me find my cat, Gee, how I wonder wheres she's at! Has

3

D. C. Chorus al Fine