

THE LOVE SICK FROG

An Original Air.

Arranged With an Accompaniment for the Harp or Piano Forte

by
T, COOKE.

Ent^d at Sta. Hall

Price 1/1

Dublin Printed by Goulding & Co. N^o. 7 Westmorland S^t & 117 New Bond S^t. London

Mod.^o

A Frog he would a woo - ing go, heigh ho said

Row - ly, A Frog he would a woo - - - ing go, Whe - ther his

Mo-ther would let him or no, with a Row - ly Pow - ly Gammon and Spinage O

heigh said An - tho - ny Row - ly.

2
Off he set with his Opera Hat,
Heigh ho &c.
On the road he met with a Rat,
With a Rowly Powly &c.

3
They soon arriv'd at the Mouses Hall,
Heigh ho &c.
They gave a loud tap & they gave a loud call,
With a Rowly Powly &c.

4
Pray M^{rs} Mouse are you within?
Heigh ho &c.
Yes kind Sirs, I'm sitting to spin,
With a Rowly Powly &c.

5
Come M^{rs} Mouse now give us some beer,
Heigh ho &c.
That Froggy and I may have some cheer,
With a Rowly Powly &c.

6
Pray M^r Frog will you give us a song,
Heigh ho &c.
Let the subject be something that's not very long,
With a Rowly Powly &c.

7
Indeed M^{rs} Mouse replied the Frog,
Heigh ho &c.
A cold has made me as hoarse as a hog.
With a Rowly Powly &c

8
Since you have caught cold M^r Frog Mousy said,
Heigh ho &c.
I'll sing you a song that I have just made,
With a Rowly Powly &c.

9
As they were in glee and a merry making,
Heigh ho &c.
A Cat and her Kittens came tumbling in,
With a Rowly Powly &c.

10
The Cat she seized the Rat by the crown,
Heigh ho &c.
The Kittens they pull'd the little Mouse down,
With a Rowly Powly &c.

11
This put M^r Frog in a terrible fright,
Heigh ho &c.
He took up his Hat & he wish'd them good night,
With a Rowly Powly &c.

12
As Froggy was crossing it over a brook,
Heigh ho &c.
A lilly white Duck came and gobbled him up.
With a Rowly Powly &c.

13
So here is an end to one two and three,
Heigh ho &c.
The Rat, the Mouse, and little Froggy,
With a Rowly Powly &c.

N.B. The Music and Words of this Song are Property.

Mo-ther would let him or no, with a Row - ly Pow - ly Gammon and Spinage O

heigh said An - tho - ny Row - ly.

2
 Off he set with his Opera Hat,
 Heigh ho &c.
 On the road he met with a Rat,
 With a Rowly Powly &c.

3
 They soon arriv'd at the Mouses Hall,
 Heigh ho &c.
 They gave a loud tap & they gave a loud call,
 With a Rowly Powly &c.

4
 Pray M^{rs} Mouse are you within?
 Heigh ho &c.
 Yes kind Sirs, I'm sitting to spin,
 With a Rowly Powly &c.

5
 Come M^{rs} Mouse now give us some beer,
 Heigh ho &c.
 That Froggy and I may have some cheer,
 With a Rowly Powly &c.

6
 Pray M^r Frog will you give us a song,
 Heigh ho &c.
 Let the subject be something that's not very long,
 With a Rowly Powly &c.

7
 Indeed M^{rs} Mouse replied the Frog,
 Heigh ho &c.
 A cold has made me as hoarse as a hog.
 With a Rowly Powly &c

8
 Since you have caught cold M^r Frog Mousy said,
 Heigh ho &c.
 I'll sing you a song that I have just made,
 With a Rowly Powly &c.

9
 As they were in glee and a merry making,
 Heigh ho &c.
 A Cat and her Kittens came tumbling in,
 With a Rowly Powly &c.

10
 The Cat she seized the Rat by the crown,
 Heigh ho &c.
 The Kittens they pull'd the little Mouse down,
 With a Rowly Powly &c.

11
 This put M^r Frog in a terrible fright,
 Heigh ho &c.
 He took up his Hat & he wish'd them good night,
 With a Rowly Powly &c.

12
 As Froggy was crossing it over a brook,
 Heigh ho &c.
 A lilly white Duck came and gobbled him up.
 With a Rowly Powly &c.

13
 So here is an end to one two and three,
 Heigh ho &c.
 The Rat, the Mouse, and little Froggy,
 With a Rowly Powly &c.

N.B. The Music and Words of this Song are Property.