

ALA MOANA*

A Song of Hawaii

*Pronounced "Allah Mo-ah-nah"

Words and Music by JOHNNY NOBLE & BOB LUKENS

Intro.

Out where the gold - en sun is I've seen the sights of ev-'ry shin - ing _____ Down on an is - land far a - way _____

cit - y _____ I've been in ev - 'ry for - eign clime _____

Just to be there my heart is pin - ing _____
But there's no place with girls so pret - ty _____

And I'll be back a - gain some day _____ Down on the A - la Mo - Song birds are sing - ing all the time _____ Down on the A - la Mo -

pp p ff

a - na Where I chanced to stray.
a - na Life is just sub - lime.

Chorus

Be-neath the palm trees sway - ing Where u - ku - le - les play

I met a dusk - y maid - en She stole my heart a - way

Un-der-neath the trop-ic skies Oh how she wig-gled and she rolled her eyes

In the land of Par - a - dise Man - y miles a - way

My heart is ev - er yearn - ing ——— To see her smile once more

And soon I'll be re - turn - ing ——— To fair Ha - wai - i's shore

Where the waves are roll - ing To the strains of har - mo - ny —

On the A - la Mo - a - na Where I long to be.

be.

ff pp