Peo-ple get wise — won't you op - en your eyes, — The Char-ly Mc Coy — was a mus-i-cal boy, — A blues can make you sigh. Think of the day, — won - der so they say. He left his home, —

You went a - way. — How you could al - most cry.
On - ly to roam, — That's why he went a - way.

I know a town, if you leave it you'll frown, It's a good old place of bliss.
How it is true - that he's lone-ly and blue, - And how his poor heart does pine,

Just try it now, - it will haunt you some-how, And make you feel like this:
He took a note - and up - on it he wrote, These words to Car - o - line!

Chorus

Back, back, back to Birm-ing-ham - in Al - a - bam, - Al - a - bam, -

p-f

That's where my girl is call-ing, "Dad - dy," Won't you please come back, Put your hat back on my rack, I hear my train a-wait-ing

My heart is pal-pit - a - ting, back,back,back, to Birm-ing-ham, - Just like I am, - Like I am, - I'll walk right in just like a lamb,

- I may not have the key, Yet the folks will wel-come me, In

Birm-ing-hay, way down in Al - a - bam now I am weep-ing like a wil-low tree - Since my sweet Frank-ie went a - way from me Where she is gone I real-ly do not know, She was seen some place near Bal-ti-mo, Yes! I will pay most an-y fair re-ward, If you will find my lov-in' Frank-ie "Lawd" I've been to Fris-co
