Can't remember.

Can't remember getting doleful;
Can't remember feeling sad.
Seems to me the world is only
Just a bunch of being glad.
Can't remember any season
When the sun has never shone;
Can't remember any winter,
'Cept the summer followed on.

Just remember lots of pleasures
That I might have been without;
Just remember heaps of troubles
That I might have had, no doubt.
Don't remember, all my lifetime,
Ever gaining much from tears;
Don't see how I'd gain much pleasure
Nursing trouble all the years.

Can't remember any garden
Didn't have a single flow'r;
Can't remember any daytime
Didn't have some happy hour.
Don't remember any roadway
Hasn't got a pleasant mile;
Don't remember anybody
Hasn't got some cause to smile.
