Coming Home Along.

I do be crying, though the gray bird sings,
I do be sighing, wishing time had wings,
I do be longing for the winter to be past,
When the man I be loving comes home along at last.

Fields do lie fallow, and idle lies the plough,
Hillside and valley feel no sunshine now,
I do be waiting with love ever strong,
Till the one I be longing for comes home, comes home along.
