Some very choice bits of musical news.

Rock-a-bye Land is the title of the latest song of H. C. Weasner of this city, who has written both words and music of this composition. Mr. Weasner has a happy faculty of creating a combination of text and melody which makes strong appeal to the public, and this newest song of his will probably prove as popular as his earlier successful one, When Mother Sang Hush-a-bye, O. An attractive title page graces Rock-a-bye Land.

ROCK-A-BYE LAND

Words & Music by H. C. WEASNER

CHORUS Slowly with expression Writer of "When Mother Sang Hush-A-Bye, O"

Rock-a-bye ba-by come take my hand, I know a strand called Rock-a-bye Land,
 Chase the sun-beams that lead the way, We'll go a-sail-ing down Rock-a-bye Bay;
 Now close your eyes way up in the skies, An-gels will watch o'er thee keep,
 In twilight gleam you'll find a sweet dream, While moth-er sings you to sleep.

Rock-a-bye ba-by on the tree top, When the wind blows the cradle will rock.

When Mother Sang, "Hush A-Bye, O"

Words & Music by H. C. WEASNER

CHORUS Slowly and tenderly

When moth-er sang hush-a-bye, ba-by to me, 'Twas just an old-fashioned sweet mel-o-dy, An-gels in heav-en'er sang such a strain, I'd give the world just to hear it a-gain. Hush-a-bye, Hush-a-bye wee ba-by dear, An-gels will guard thee and moth-er is near.

CHORUS.

When the night-in-gale is sing-ing, and call-ing to his mate,

Love, you'll find me wait-ing be-side the rus-tic gate,

Then I know you'll tell me, that you'll be al-ways mine,

While the birds are coo-ing, in dream-y slum-ber time.
