Music by
IRA B. WILSON.

Andante con espressione.

Im wear - ing a flow'r for you, moth - er, to - day, A flow'r like your soul pure and fair, A blos - som as sweet as my dream - ings of you, Your coun - sel, your guid - ance and care.

CHORUS.

For you, moth - er dear, for you, Im wear - ing a flow'r for

It comes from a garden

no

you. _____ In mem - o - ry's gar - den, with fra - grance di - vine, Still no any as fine fair - er ones blos - som, O moth - er of mine. For you, _____ for:

with greeting from me

you, _____ I'm wear - ing a flow'r for you; _____ In fond mem - o -

- ry, that others may see, I'm wear - ing a flow'r for you. _____

I'm wear-ing a flow'r that the whole world may know, I'm proud to have claimed for my own, The love-li-est sov-er-eign God ev-er made, To reign from a heart's sa-cred throne.

CHORUS.

For you, moth-er dear, for you, I'm wear-ing a flow'r for

you. ——— In mem - o - ry's gar - den, with fra-grance di - vine, Still fair - er ones blos - som, O moth - er of mine. For you, ——— for you, ——— I'm wear - ing a flow'r for you; ——— In fond mem-o-

-ry, that oth - ers may see, I'm wear - ing a flow'r for you. ———

Mezzo Soprano Solo

I have read of a beau-ti-ful Ci - ty, — Far a - way in the king-dom of God; — I have read how its walls are of jas-per, — How its streets are all gol-den and broad. — In the midst of the street is life's Last seven measures of Mezzo Soprano Solo omitted. Duet followed by Baritone Solo and Duet Finale.

I have read of bright mansions in heav - en, Which the Sav-ior has gone to pre-pare, — And the saints, who on earth have been faith-ful,
