

Follow the Glacier Trail

Lyric by F. O. G. Schindler.

Music by Thos. I. Hollingworth.

Moderato

Piano

Vamp

sfz p

Voice

Sum-mer sun is shin-ing. Ev'-ry-bo-dy blue; In the shade re-Sil-v'ry moon is beam-ing. Ev'-ry-bo-dy gay; Flick'ring camp fires clin-ing. Roast-ed thru and thru; Winter was so fine and grand, gleam-ing. All a-long the way; Ev'-ry-body's touring West.

The musical score consists of four systems. The first system is a piano introduction in G major, marked 'Moderato'. The second system continues the piano introduction, marked 'Vamp', with dynamics 'sfz' and 'p'. The third system is the voice entry, with lyrics: 'Sum-mer sun is shin-ing. Ev'-ry-bo-dy blue; In the shade re- / Sil-v'ry moon is beam-ing. Ev'-ry-bo-dy gay; Flick'ring camp fires'. The fourth system continues the voice and piano accompaniment with lyrics: 'clin-ing. Roast-ed thru and thru; Winter was so fine and grand, / gleam-ing. All a-long the way; Ev'-ry-body's touring West.'

Arranged by CARL A. WEBER.

Copyright MCMXXII by Hollingworth & Schindler, Music Publishers.

Peoples Bank Building, - Seattle, Washington

International Copyright Secured

All Rights Reserved

way down in Dix-ie land. But now there is only this to do.
 where sum-mer time is best. And soon they will write their friends and say:

Chorus

Crank your fliv-ver on the Swa-nee River, and fol-low the Glacier Trail: To Puget

Sound, with mountains around, What a wonderful place for a sail, The sun beats down, down in Dixie in June. But up in the moun-tains you can cuddle and spoon, So — crank your flivver on the Swa-nee River, And fol-low —

— the Glacier Trail. — Trail. —