

For She's Just Like The Last Rose Of Summer

Words by PAUL HUMMEL

Music by
GEO. GRAFF, Jr.

The first system shows the piano introduction. It consists of two staves: a treble clef staff and a bass clef staff. The music is in 4/4 time and begins with a series of chords and single notes, setting a gentle, melancholic mood.

One lit - tle miss sits on her dad - dy's knee, She looks at his down - cast
And as her dad - dy takes her in his arms, He looks at the child and

The second system contains the first two lines of the song. The vocal line is written on a single treble clef staff, and the piano accompaniment is on a grand staff (treble and bass clefs). The lyrics are: "One lit - tle miss sits on her dad - dy's knee, She looks at his down - cast And as her dad - dy takes her in his arms, He looks at the child and".

she said good - bye, That's why I pit - y, and why I cry.

The fifth system contains the final two lines of the song. The lyrics are: "us bye and bye? Tell me dad - dy, why is it you cry?" she said good - bye, That's why I pit - y, and why I cry."

Chorus

She's just like the last Rose of Sum - mer, She al - read - y has fad - ed and gone, She wan - dered a - way in the bloom of the sum - mer, With nev - er a thought for her own lit - tle one, And if the sum - mers are ev - er so long, We can't bring back the dear days that were, For she's just like the last Rose of Sum - mer, And there's no rose can be just like her.
