CHORUS

Oh, the sun shines so much bright - er And the skies are twice as blue, And the p f

grass grows green - er 'way down home. — Oh, the old folks' hair is whit - er, Like the sil-ver in the dew, And the grass grows green-er 'way down home. — You've nev-er seen such red lips as one cer-tain pair, — Or such gold-en hair, — as I've got down there. —

Oh, the heart strings pull much tight-er And the pals are twice as true, — And the grass grows green-er 'way down home. — Oh, the home. —
