"The Village Belle"

CHORUS.

"She was the belle of the vil - lage,..... against her folks' wishes she wed,..... The name of her husband her father for-bade to be placed o'er her head,..... And said she'd no right to the name that she bore in the old home where he'd lov'd her well,..... So he wrote there the name she was known by here, we called her the Vil - lage Belle,".....

The musical score consists of three systems. Each system includes a vocal line on a treble clef staff and a piano accompaniment on a grand staff (treble and bass clefs). The key signature is one sharp (F#) and the time signature is 4/4. The lyrics are written below the vocal line.

"A Flower from the Garden of Life."

By the composer of "Mandy Lee" and "Little Black Me"

THURLAND CHATTAWAY.

A song that is entirely unique, told in an original way. A melody that is beautiful, and a story that is sweetly pretty. We have published songs that have gone into thousands of homes, have delighted millions of hearers. We never published one that we could speak of in higher praise than

"A FLOWER FROM THE GARDEN OF LIFE."

Ask for it; you will find it is all that we have said of it and more. The Chorus is:

She is a flower from the garden of life, fairest of all to me,
Promise that you will always faithful be,
Don't let the light of your love fade away, remember that she's your wife,
So watch her with care, this blossom so rare, a flower from the garden of life.
