

FOURTH OF JULY, 1865.

ALL HAIL TO OUR

TRIUMPH

"E Pluribus Unum."

SONG AND CHORUS.

WORDS AND MUSIC BY

HARRY BUCKLINE.

CHICAGO:

Published by H. M. HIGGINS, 117 Randolph St.

Entered according to Act of Congress, A. D. 1865, by H. M. HIGGINS in the Clerk's Office of the District Court for the Northern District of Illinois.

Fourth of July, 1865.

ALL HAIL TO OUR TRIUMPH.

"E Pluribus Unum."

HARRY BUCKLINE.

Allegro.

Piano

3. We'll hon - or the he - roes who've

1. All hail to our tri - umph, ye
2. With joy for the liv - ing, with con - quer'd the foe, And giv'n us our glo - ri - ous U - nion a gain; "In loy - al, ye true— All hail to the morn of Co - lum - bia's proud day; The tears for the dead, We wel - come a - gain the glad morn - ing of peace; First

Entered according to Act of Congress A.D. 1859, by H. M. HIGGINS, in the Clerk's Office of the District Court for the Northern District of Illinois.

God," is our mot - to---Heav'n smiles on us now, And, u - nit - ed as one, we will foe - man is hum - bled, and trai - tors, undone, Have yield - ed the con - test to day of Mil-len - i - um, from a - ges foretold, When con - flicts and tu - mulds for - ev - er re-main. We fol - low'd our "cho - sen one" through the long war, And Poco. Ritardando.

Lib - er - ty's sway. Long years have we wait - ed for ter - rors to cease, And ev - er shall cease, We'll raise up the mar - ble, though mute it will tell The wept like his chil - dren when God call'd him home: His spirit hov - ers o'er us and Dolce men to. Tempo.

pray'd that the hour of de - liv - 'rance might come: The con - test is o - ver—the deeds of renown that our "Brave Boys" have done: Oh, dear are their names, and the joins in the song That tells of the tri - unph of "Man - y in One."

bright dawn of Peace Is hail'd with delight by the "Man - y in One."
fields where they fell Will live in the mem - 'ry of "Man - y in One."

All Hail to our Triumph.

Chorus.

Con Spirito.

Then hail to our triumph, ye loy-al, ye true--- All hail to the glo-ri-ous vic-to-ry won; Fling

f

Cres . . . cen . . . do.

Then hail to our triumph, ye loy-al, ye true--- All hail to the glo-ri-ous vic-to-ry won; Fling

f

f

f

out the old Banner--the Red, the White, the Blue--the em-blem of U-nion, and "Man-y in One."

out the old Banner--the Red, the White, the Blue--the em-blem of U-nion, and "Man-y in One."

f

f

All Hail to our Triumph.

PAYNE